Media Alert

for immediate release 11/2/13

Your chance to snap up a bespoke winter accessory

Make sure to be in the lovely village of Exeter in the Southern Highlands on Saturday 20th April when the village hall once again turns into an Emporium.

Don't miss the Grand Sale of wonderful Exeter Ex'cessories!

Many bags, hats and scarves created by some talented artisans that will ensure your winter wardrobe features something very special.

In the tradition of past years, the Exeter CWA promises a fun filled day of discovering wonderfully original pieces, combined with a range of stall and activities for all the family.

"Throughout the day, there will be demonstrations to show you lots of ways to tie scarves, face painting for the children and the stirring whirl of the bagpipes as the Highlands Pipes and Drums play on the green" said Publicity Officer, Nova Miller.

Come along and enjoy Scrumptious Devonshire teas, hearty BBQ fare, cakes, lollies and a variety of other stalls.

With Mother's Day coming up this is the very opportunity to snag that special bargain for a gift for Mum too.

Exeter Village Hall, 9.30am-3.30pm. Saturday 20th April.
